AN ORATION BY PRESIDENT BUTLER OF COLBY

exercises of Patrons' Day were held to-day at Colgate University. At 11 o'clock this morning the oration before the University was delivered by President Nathaniel Butler, D. D., of Colby University. His subject was "The Relation of the Col-lege to the University." He considered the college in its development of the intellectual, social, young men. It was a scholarly and eloquent ad-

A luncheon was held in the new gymnastum at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. William E. Weed, of "The Utica Herald," was toastmaster. The first "The Utica Herald," was toastmaster. The first speaker was Charles R. Skinner. State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who spoke on educational foundations. He said that the great objects of common-school education were character, citizenship and patriotism. Mr. Skinner declared that college education was too exclusive and too expensive, and said there should be reform. He closed with patriotic sentiments appropriate to the time.

The next speaker was President Butler, who spoke on "The Elective System in the College." Speaches were made by the Rev. Dr. R. G. Sovmour, of Philadelphia, Dean W. H. Crawshaw and Dr. W. E. Ford of Utica. Letters of regret were read from Thomas L. James of New-York: Melvil Dewey of Albany, and James C. Colgate, of New-York: He a rising vote, those present authorized the sending of a cable dispatch of greeting to James B. Colgate, in Europe.
